MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

John:

I have discussed the attached memo from [ ] with Red White. Red's reaction to the problem posed is manifold and I send it along to you for your consideration. First off, he believes that the Agency should put its best foot forward when providing a speaker to any outside facility such as this one. For most members of the audience, the speaker may well be the only example of what the Agency is and does. Red thinks that the lecture given at the Special Warfare Center on the CIA role in counterinsurgency is one that you or Rod should undertake to do, perhaps with an occasional substitution by a Clandestine Services division chief, such as [ ]
